COURAGE IN DUTY AND SERVICE - ANSWERING THE CALL INTRODUCING OUR KEYNOTE SPEAKER MAJOR MARK NUTSCH

Mark Nutsch served in the Army as a Ranger and Special Forces officer, deploying on multiple combat tours. In the aftermath of the 9/11 attacks, he led one of the first Special Forces teams into northern Afghanistan. In the team, designated Operational Detachment Alpha – 595, advised the resistance leadership, helping to unite the disparate forces against the Taliban and al-Qaeda. Fighting on horseback much of the time, his team spearheaded the unconventional warfare operations that liberated the country. Mark and his team of Green Berets became known as “The Horse Soldiers.” They are the design inspiration of the “America’s Response Monument” in New York City, a tribute to our Special Operations Forces and Intelligence Community. Mark and the 595 team and their families are featured in the Emmy-nominated documentary film “Legion of Brothers.” Mark is portrayed by actor Chris Hemsworth in the 2018 feature film titled “12 Strong.” Mark and his 2001 mission teammates are founders of Badger Six, a foundation that supports their Afghan allies and families who stood beside the 595 team and the U.S. in the darkest hours after the 9/11 attacks. Many remain trapped in Afghanistan, hunted by the Taliban or in adjacent countries pending approval of legal immigration to safety. Featured in multiple books and films, Mark is a sought-after speaker, lecturing often on leadership and military topics.
